

Tooele County School District
Utah Core State Standards Brochures
Creating a Culture of Learning for All

Professional Development Implementing Utah State Core for Educators in Tooele County School District

Each School has 12 Hours of Professional Development in their School Improvement Plans which includes a focus on implementation of the Utah Core State Standards and the Four Focus Areas of a Professional Learning Community.

2010-2011	Teachers work with Curriculum Director to “unpack” the new core and decide on the sequence to teach the standards
March, 2011	Introduction of the Summer CCSS Academy Mathematics and Language Arts Presented by USOE (Utah State Office of Education)
June / July 2011	Summer Academy – CCSS See Utah Core Academy Summer Trainings Numbers Training was not mandatory.
August, 2011	District facilitators trained for Opening Institute
August 19, 2011	District Common Core State Standards and Implementation Mathematics and Language Arts Distributed a CCSS Book to Every Educator in the District
October 29, 2011	Trained administrators on presenting the lesson plan procedures for October 31 professional development.
October 31, 2011	Common Core State Standards Day – Professional Development
November/December, 2011	“What Counts” – Presented throughout the District Included: Reasons for the Common Core State Standards
February 6, 2012	Professional Development Day for All Educators Tom Many, PLC Implementation and the Essential Standards
March-May, 2012	Provided Professional Development in Leadership Utah Core State Standards
June/July 2012	Summer Academy – CCSS See Utah Core Academy Summer Training Numbers
Thursday, February 07, 2013

Opening Leadership August 2011-2012

Professional Development for Administrators –
Using the Utah Core State Standards in the Classroom Teacher groups were brought in for ½ to full day for professional development implementing the Utah Core State Standards.

August 16, 2012

Opening Institute - Educators were able to select topics to attend. Sessions contained core topics, best teaching strategies, technology, student engagement, and other areas of focus.

October 31, 2012

Utah Core State Standards Day – Professional
Development

February 19, 2013

Utah Core State Standards Day – Professional
Development

Thursday, February 07, 2013